

Call for Art

“American Apocalypses”

as|peers is a print and digital journal produced and edited by MA level students of American studies. In addition to showing the scholarly work produced by students from all over Europe, the journal frequently features art by young artists.

In this open call for art, we are looking for:

- Illustrations
- Paintings
- Photography
- Poetry
- Creative Writing

and everything in between that is in some way connected or inspired by the upcoming issue’s topic, “American Apocalypses.”

Please submit your work to aspeers2023@gmail.com, by January 15, 2023.

Please note that, due to funding constraints, we are not able to offer any financial compensation for the finally accepted submission. While we are aware that artists deserve compensation for their time and work, we ask for your understanding that we are a journal dedicated to spotlighting the work of graduate students, and would like to include the artistic work of our peers.
